18th January 2023

Dear parents,

When we met in November to discuss plans for September 2023 and the build of the main Newquay Primary Academy site, I had hoped to be able to share more news with parents in the new year. However, at this moment, there is currently no more news regarding the permanent site or the temporary location and the definitive plans for September.

I understand that you may be disappointed with this news. As soon as more information is available, please be assured that I will disseminate this to you. I am hoping that I will be in a position to get more news out to parents by the end of February/beginning of March.

Yours sincerely,

Craig Hayes
